VOLUME XV

COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY MARCH 27, 1912.

NUMBER 21

Mr. L. L. Rounds Dead.

Last Sunday morning, about 8 o'clock, the subject of this notice died at his late home, Russell Springs. He was a victim of double pneumonia, and was sixty-odd years old, a fine citizen and a Christian gentleman, being a devout member of the Methodist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Rounds with their children resided in Columbia for several years, and they were very much liked by the residents of the town. The deceased removed from Michigan to Kentucky a number of years ago, locating first at Burkesville. He also lived quite awhile at Marrowbone, Cumberland county, making friends at each of the locations. The remains were conveyed from Russell Springs to this place and the interment was in the city cemetery Monday afternoon, a large circle of friends attending the sad rites.

The deceased leaves a wife and several children, all grown, Mrs. Dan Clark, of Columbia, being one of the number.

This entire town is in sympathy with the surviving members of the family.

He is in perfect health and his mental faculties are unimpaired. He is very fond of a smoke, and you most generally see him with a pipe in his mouth. He also enjoys a good cigar. When he lived in Adair he was regarded as a most excellent citizen.

Lawrence Rousseau, No. 2744, A. S. H. R., will make the present season at my barn, on the farm known as the Jordan Page farm, near Cane Valley and will serve mares for $10, to insure a living colt, money due when colt is foaled or mare parted with. It will be remembered that Carson was convicted at the last term of the court for killing Ed Cochran, and given a life sentence in the penitentiary.

The grand jury returned 31 indictments after being in session six days. Casey county is getting good.

Court adjourned Tuesday afternoon, and Judge Carter left for home Wednesday.

Fred McLean.

Conveyed to Lebanon.

About four weeks ago Mr. A. K. Rupe, who is a prominent citizen of the Breeding community, was operated on by Dr. McChord, of Lebanon, for appendicitis. He has not been doing well, and last Thursday he was conveyed to McChord hospital, Lebanon. He was accompanied by his family physician, Dr. H. B. Simpson, who thinks, that in all probability, another operation will be performed. Mr. Rupe's many friends of Adair county are very anxious to hear a favorable report from him.

Mr. C. W. Taylor, of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, who has been here for the past week, is very favorably impressed with our people and later he may invest in the county. Mr. Dane Charles Taylor, his son, is anxious to farm and his father is disposed to give him an opportunity. The younger Taylor has quite a number of acquaintances in Columbia, having visited here last year. Mr. C. W. Taylor's present plans are to send his family and his son's family down here about the last of May to remain several months. If they like then a farm will be purchased. They are fine people and Adair county will be glad to have them.

The Minstrel show given by about sixteen young men of the Lindsey-Wilson, at the court-house, last Thursday night, was well attended and very much enjoyed. There were many new and laughable jokes, the singing was good and the dancing easy and graceful. Every one who took part acquitted himself well, and the audience was well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

Notice.

I will sit each day from March the 15th, 1912, until May 1st, 1912, at Sparksville, Ky., to receive claims against the estate of Thomas England, assigned.

Will Watch the Fun.

Liberty, Ky., March 22, 1912.

Editor News:

Since by an act of the Legislature we have been placed in the Eighth Congressional District, I am sure that we are now safely within the Democratic fold, where they have been wanting to get us for several years past. Casey fared along just like Adair, and our objections are about the same. However, we have no power to undo what has been accomplished by the law-making body of our State. So we accede to the things we cannot help, very gracefully, and invite the Hon. Harvey Helm, the Hon. George E. Stone or Col. Jack Chinn to come on and make the fight in their own way, and us Republicans can stand back and watch the show to a finish. Isn't it a strange thing how men have to bow down in submission to the opposition sometimes, but it's true. I never gloried in anything more, since I can remember, that being permitted to be a citizen of the banner Republican congressional district of America, the 11th district of Kentucky, but that glory is far away in the dim mist now, and is no longer my own, yet I can still stand on a high place in the eighth and look over into the eleventh, with as much enthusiasm as though I belonged there still. We hope though that we have been thrust in good company, and as our new neighbors reside in the best portion of the State, we will not raise further objections to the inevitable.

Fred McLean.

Dr. N. A. Parmer State Supt. of the Anti-Saloon League, will address the people of Columbia the fifth Sunday in March at the Christian church at 11 o'clock in the morning. And at the Methodist church 7:30 p. m. He will have some good things to tell the people and every body ought to hear him. He will also speak at Greenville in the afternoon of the same day. Friends there will circulate the appointment, and have a large audience. Dr. Palmer is not a stranger in this town and those who have heard him will want to hear him again.

We will pay 18 cents for Eggs this Week.

I desire to sell my residence and lot in Columbia and will take as part pay a good team of horses.

Extra good show at Parlor Circle tonight.

Mr. John B. Russell, of this place, makes this statement for the benefit of those who thought he had an undesirable contract. Twenty years ago he had his life insured in an old line company for one thousand dollars, tontine plan. Last week he made a settlement and received $1,363.20. He paid in during the twenty years $1,112. The company offered to hold the policy until his death without further payment, giving him $2,000 when he deceased or $1,363.20 now. He accepted the latter. Since writing the above he has concluded to accept $2,000 at death.

We are glad to note that S. H. Harper, who has been in a critical condition for the past week, is considered better at this time.

Mr. W. R. Lyon, the wellknown groceryman of Campbells-ville, was shaking hands with his many friends in our town last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Squires, of Green Co., visited relatives here a day or so last week.

friend of Nell, was with us one day last week, and reports farmers progressing nicely with their work in his section.

Uncle Charley Yates and his daughter Miss Ella, have been on the sick list for the past week, but at this time we are glad to say they are improving.

Nat Walker spent last Sunday, with relatives, at Nell.

The few days of summer heat last week put a different appearance on vegetation down this way. I don't suppose there was ever a time that warm weather was more appreciated by both man and beast. Our grass and wheat has come out wonderfully. If the warm weather continues a few days longer, the bone yard will be a thing of the past in this section.

The roller mill at this place, is doing a fine business. It is almost a daily occurrence to see from three to five wagons well loaded with flour for different parts of the county. Our mill man, Mr. Parsons, knows how to make good flour.

Mrs. Millie Hill, our experienced milliner, returned from the city last week, where she bought a large and assorted stock of goods, for this market. Mrs. Hill has been in the business so long it is useless to comment on her work.

Mrs. Mollie Diddle, of Columbia, spent a day or so at her old home, last week.

On Saturday the 16th, at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Parson of our city, gathered quite a number of their friends and relatives in honor of the sixty-eight anniversary of Mrs. Parson. We have had the pleasure in the past several times of attending such occasion, but never before did we attend an occasion like unto this. The table was well loaded with every thing imaginable good to eat. The News has not space for us to numerate the different kind of good things that was served on this occasion. The day will long be remembered by every one present, and our sincere desire is that we all may live to attend many more occasions just like this prepared especially by Mrs. Parson and her daughter, Miss Bertie.

Mr. B. B. Janes, one of our best citizens and business men, was taken violent sick while at work out on his farm one day last week. At this time he is considered some better.

Mr. Watson Janes an old man of this community died on the 23rd, with dropsy.

Mr. W. M. Smith one of our best citizens has been sick for the past week or so.

Columbia is sadly in need of more enterprises in the way of factories. There are a great many men in town who are out of employment two-thirds of their time. They are willing to work, but it is not here for them. The merchants and grocery men want more business, but it takes work to make business.

The call for the second payment of 25 per cent has been made and we trust every subscriber to the fund will be prompt in its payment. Many have not paid the first call, so in that event will be expected to pay both when called on. Miss Alice Walker and Mrs. G. R. We have no time to lose in this matter if the building is completed before cold weather next fall, and if every member will assist we will soon have our new Church under course of construction. If any one desires to pay full subscription it will be gladly accepted and the note canceled and returned.

Respectfully The Building Committee.

Created No Sensation.

Teddy, the Lion Killer, must be a most disappointed man. After swearing he would never be a candidate for President again under any circumstances, he claims to have heard the unmistakable voice of the people, which is said to be the voice of God, to offer himself as a sacrifice to rule over them again. He doubtless expected that the announcement would create such a sensation as would put a nine days wonder to blush. Instead it fell as flat as a flounder. Nobody is surprised at anything the Colonel would do, and it seems that nobody cares except a few office holders whom he appointed, and who got the ax where the chicken did under Taft.

The times has $15 in its inside pocket, don't you know, which says that Roosevelt will not be nominated for the Presidency, and if perchance he should be, he will be the worst beaten man who ever offered for the highest office in the gift of the people who have an antipathy for third terms and a settled conviction that Mr. Roosevelt is too dangerous a man to be entrusted with power again. The Democrats are going to elect a President in this good year of our Lord and the Colonel as well as Mr. Taft had as well cease from troubling.—Somerset Times.

Repels Attack Of Death.

"Five years ago two doctors told me I had only two years to live." This startling statement was made by Stillman Green, Malachite, Col. "They told me I would die with consumption. It was up to me to try the best lung medicine and I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery. It was well I did, for today I am working and believe I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure that has cheated the grave of another victim. Its folly to suffer with coughs, colds or other throat and lung troubles now. Take the cure that's safest. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Paul Drug Co.

The Kimona sleeve in its modified form has not yet been pushed entirely aside by the long sleeve, which is all the rage at present. It is customary to make the armhole part accentuate the droop of the shoulders by setting the seam low down. Thus the kimona line remains.—Exchange.

Little or no false hair is now the fashion. Pompadours are entirely passe, and parts in the middle or on the side reign supreme. Ears are covered with soft, wavy strands of hair, and the psyche knot is the favorite.

Our Boys.

Talmage once said, "between the ages of six and sixteen years the masculine nature is a mixture of mischief and sensitiveness, spunk, fun, pugnacity, cruelty kindness which the chemistry of the world has failed to any-lize." Nobody wants him, nor understands him, and the little fellow doesn't seem to fit any where comfortably.

Don't snub the boy, you are dealing with soul stuff. The world will punish him severely enough, heaven knows, and he will have need of all the self-respect an confidence in his own manhood that you can train into him. Point out to him the path of rectitude on homes, and show him that he cannot afford to do a mean of cruel action.

Don't whip the boy—many an Ishmael dates his expulsion from the confidence and esteem of his kind from the hasty flogging which, administered in anger drove him out into the world, crushed by a sense of wrong and humiliation which he never intended to deserve. Hold them up by your own righteous acts and deeds. Don't drive them, but lead them. You can not start the boy one way and you go another. He'll follow in your footsteps. They won't be boys always—too soon they grow into great strapping fellows, and the voice of the world will woo them away from the harbor of home. God recognizes the valuable and honorable ancestry and visits the children with favors because of the faithfulness of the fathers. Remember the covenant with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, pleading with God for the children of Israel in bondage. Our dear boys are in bondage, let us live to free them. At a party of young folks one evening all were seated, joyously engaged in the game of Questions and Answers. One girl at the side of the room glancing over a paper just handed her, noticed her lover had that day eloped with another girl. When came her turn the question was asked, what is the saddest thing in the world? Laying the paper aside she answered piteously "to love a man."

A shabby little boy in overalls crouched down in the corner of the room, (like one of our little boys,) not engaged in the game, raised himself up and said; no the saddest thing in the world is to be a boy." Put your arms around the shabby little fellow make him feel that he is useful and needed. All of our men were once boys.

Whitler said: "Blessings on the little man."

Barefoot boy with cheeks of tan, with thy turned pantaloon and thy merry whistled tunes, from my heart I give thee, joy; I was once a barefoot boy," God help us as parents to do our whole duty.

Teach the boy to be loyal, friendly, trustworthy, kind, helpful, courteous, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean and reverent.

May our boys take out into the world the remembrance of a love that never failed them. Let them carry with them into its fret and strife the remembrance of a happy childhood.

Should Women Vote.

"In the beginning God said, 'Let them have dominion male and female created He them and blessed them have dominion over every living thing,' a proof that God intended man and woman to equally rule the world." Woman believes mind and not masculinity should reign. Mind is sexless, in matters pertaining to religion and the laws of God, and mind should be sexless in conscience and civil government. Woman is a parent of the people!

This is a democratic government and founded on the belief that the people should rule. The franchise has only been withheld from woman with the result of democracy that has not stood for the whole people, and our nation has suffered loss, as have mothers, wives, children and our homes.

Do we not see to deprive the mother of a voice in the government of her child, and has not woman suffered under the man-made laws that do not give her equal guardianship, or equal inheritance of and from her child? Woman has no direct political influence, and as a result must also suffer taxation without representation, discrimination in favor of man, unjust divorce laws, a higher rate on life insurance, longer hours, less per day for like services, a higher tariff on her clothes, etc., etc., and is told extolled and exhorted to believe in chivalry and a continuation of of the folly that she has endured for six thousand years.

Reversible Hats Latest.

Reversible hats have come to keep company with reversible coats. They are the newest novelty in the millinery shops, and are so arranged that each hat may be worn in fine weather. In other words, one side is suitable only for fine weather and the other side can withstand the rain and snow. The hats are adapted specially for traveling, walking in the country or even for riding or driving. They are made of straw, neatly lined throughout. The straw is extremely pliable and bears turning, folding and twisting to an unusual extent. The trimming consists of a large buckle and a rosette.

REX PAULL

This Celebrated young Stallion will make the present season (1912) at our barn at Roley, Ky., for the sum of $12.00 for a mare colt, or $10.00 for a horse colt. Rex Paull is registered 2928 in the American Saddle Horse Breeding Association.

DESCRIPTION: Rex Paull is 16 hands high, a dark bay, with fine mane and tail. He is 5 years old and weighs 1195 pounds.

Rex Paull has defeated more Stallions in the Fairs, as a show horse, than any other horse in this part of the State. His colts won the blues over the colts of four counties. His colts eleven months old, 700 pounds, and is 14½ hands high.

We insure all colts to get up and suck. Lean retained on all colts. All care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.

ROYAL PEACOCK

At the same time and place we will offer the service of Royal Peacock, who is a combined saddle and harness horse, nine years old, a model in form and action. He is the sire of some of the best colts in Adair county. He will be permitted to serve mares for $7.00. This is a rare opportunity to breed to this horse, as you will probably never have another chance to breed for this small fee. He was sired by Old Peacock, owned by Thompson Bros., Lebanon, Tenn. His first dam was Capt. Harper's blooded mare, by Young Clipper. He will stand on the insure plan, the money due when the colt is foaled or mare parted with, or traded or sold.

BEAUCHAMP

Will make the present season, (1912) at our stable at Roley at $8.00 to insure a living colt all right.

BEAUCHAMP is 8 years old, 15½ hands high, black with mealy points, heavy bone and muscle. Beauchamp has proven himself to be one of the best mule Jacks in this part of the State, imparting size and style to his gets. His mules were among the best in the county last year, and brought top prices.

Beauchamp was sired by Ben McFarland's fine Jack and his dam was a well bred Jennet by John McFarland's 16 hand Jack.

Money due when colt is foaled, mare bred to other stock, traded or removed from neighborhood. All care taken to prevent accidents, but not responsible should any occur.

JEFF: This fine Jack will make the present season at the same place, at $6.00 for a mare colt or $5.00 for a horse colt. Jeff is a coal black with white points, and heavy bone and muscle. This Jack has proven himself to be one of the finest breeders in the country. Stock men will do well to see this line of stock before breeding.

Stock will have our personal attention. We will pasture a limited number of mares at $2, per month, or a reasonable price for grain.

Now that the General Assembly of 1912 has adjourned sine die and the record made by Edward J. McDermott and Claude B. Terrell as the presiding officers of the Senate and the House is complete, it must be said in all fairness, and can be said with all truth, that both have proved full worthy of the trust committed. Elected after a fight of much bitterness, Mr. Terrell, by his committee appointments and by his rulings, has rightly commanded the respect and won the good-will of the House membership. Not only as a presiding officer, but as a potent factor in the enactment of good laws, has Mr. McDermott justified the confidence of the press and the people of the State in his integrity and ability.

Assembly of 191

has done some things that it ought not to have done; it has left undone some of the things it ought to have done: it has not at all times been deaf to the appeal of the spoilsman; it has at times mistaken partisanship for patriotism; but, judging its work as a whole making allowance for the briefness of the session the mass of bills to be considered and the influence always at work to prevent good legislation, the General Assembly of 1912 will easily take rank as the best in the State's history. To Mr. McDermott and to Mr. Terrell is due no small share of the praise.

Democratic newspaper devoted to the interest of the City of Columbia and the people of Adair and adjacent counties.

Entered at the Columbia Post-office as second class mail matter.

WED. MARCH 27, 1912.

Hon. Harvey Helm, Congressman from the Eighth district, was here last Friday, in company with Mr. Shelton M. Saufley, editor of the Stahford Interior-Journal. The occasion of Mr. Helm's visit was to become acquainted with the people of Columbia and Adair county, as he is a candidate for re-election to Congress, Adair having been placed in the Eighth district, by action of the Legislature which closed its session two weeks ago. Mr. Helm is a gentleman of pleasing address and he made a very favorable impression here. He is an untiring worker and has made an enviable reputation as a representative in the national House. Mr. Saufley has quite a number of relatives in Columbia and experienced much pleasure in meeting them and forming the acquaintance of a number of our citizens. Friends took pleasure in introducing Mr. Helm, and we take it that himself and Mr. Saufley were delighted with their visit.

Col. J. P. Chinn, of Harrodsburg, says he will soon announce for the Democratic nomination for Congress and that he will make a thorough canvass of the Eighth district. Won't some of his good friends go to the clever gentleman and insist that he save himself the time, trouble, and expense of making the race? "The Tall Sycamore of the St. Asaph" is as sure to be nominated and elected as anything can be and Col. Chinn is too good a man to be permitted to meet the ignominious defeat that awaits him, should he persist in going against Hon. Harvey Helm, who is coming to the front with more rapidity than any other young member of Congress. Wait until next time, Colonel, and probably you won't have to go against such a hard proposition.—Somerset Times.

The Danville Advocate, published at the home of Hon. Jennings Price, says that if Judge John W. Hughes, of Mercer, will run for Congress, he will get Boyle county's vote. The Judge is a mighty fine fellow, but he might as well stay out. All Hades itself couldn't keep Harvey Helm out of Congress again after the great work he's been doing for the people of the country this term. Just put that in your pipe and smoke it, brethren of the Advocate.—Stanford Journal.

Hon. W. J. Bryan was fifty-two years old last Tuesday. The occasion was duly celebrated at Lincoln, Neb., many prominent Democrats of the nation being present. Hon. Ollie M. James, of Kentucky, was an invited guest and he made a speech his subject being "Triumph of Democracy." In his address Mr. Bryan said that Mr. James would suit him as a Presidential candidate.

son and Gov. Harmon have both attracted the attention of the entire country by victories in their respective commonwealths and their efforts to bring their people the greatest good to the largest number are commendable. In theory the one differs from the other on some proposition, not fundamental and not yet fully accepted by Democrats throughout the country. Underwood and Clark are fighting the battle along undisputed Democratic lines in a most effective manner. Their removal from The Old Kentucky Home should cut no figure. Their present geographical position should not figure to their disadvantage. One in the middle West, one in the sunny South, but both giants in the arena of political life. The people want a President who will be true to them and just to legitimate business in every part of the country. Geographical lines will not direct the ballot nor fail to make the right Democrat President. On another page is an editorial from The Elizabethtown News, which sets forth a different view, but with Underwood at the head of our national ticket our esteemed contemporary would find his theory obliterated next November.

A Sad Death.

The death angel visited the home of Mr. Milt Brockman, in San Antonio, Texas, on March 5th, 1912, at 9:30 p. m. and took his beloved wife, Mrs. Sarah Brockman (nee Miss Sarah Arnold) She was born Feb. 29th, 1853, in Adair Co., Ky.

She joined the Christian church at Mt. Pleasant and lived a consistent member until her death. She leaves a devoted husband and one son, Mr. Joe Brockman, of Texas, also two brothers, Mr. John Arnold, of Knifley Ky., Mr. Heck Arnold, of Anna Texas, three sisters, Mrs. Mary Cravens, of Oklahoma, Mrs. Ben Thomas, of Absher Ky., and Mrs. Lizzie Hurt, of Ozark Ky., who have our deepest sympathy in this their trying hour of their bereavement.

She was reared in a large family and learned the many traits that go to make up a noble character. Her friends were numbered by her acquaintances. Though the ways of God seem so mysterious and at times we can hardly bear our troubles, but we will ask the aged husband and her only child and the broken hearted brothers and sisters and other relative, to put their trust in God who doeth all things well. Interment was in Mission Burial Park, San Antonio, Texas, March 6th, 1912, at 4:30 p. m.

I am located in the Southern part of Ga., in Berrien county, just 20 miles from the Fla. line.

This is a fine country, but it don't suit me for it gets so awfully hot. Thermometer registers about 90 degrees above zero in the shade of a pine tree, for you find no other kind here.

Farmers in this section have about gotten their corn and cotton land ready for planting. There is a great amount of cotton raised and shipped from this section of country.

I guess our Ky., farmers are making enormous crops around the fire, they always do that in order to save labor.

Georgia has no pretty horses like Ky., they only have mules that are very large and rough. There is very few pretty horses here, the ones that are were shipped in from other states.

What is wrong with the Glensfork correspondent? I have been receiving the news for a short time and none of the papers had any news from Glensfork.

This State has plenty of railroads, it beats Ky., for that.

There is plenty of game here, such as wildcats, bears, squirrels, rabbits, quails and cooters.

There is plenty of fish here, and we go fishing every few nights.

Why should Kentucky Democrats overlook, or underestimate, two of her distinguished sons, when either of them would not only make an executive who would measure up to the highest standard required by the people and the exigencies of the strained business conditions of the country, but would bring enthusiasm to every part of our great nation? Hon. Champ Clark is no rain-bow chaser, no light-weight in the field of activities. He is not theoretical, but practicable, pointed and effective in his efforts to advance the interests of the entire people. Not a plutocrat, but a Democrat in the broadest sense—a man well schooled in the field of constructive statesmanship, with executive ability the equal of any other American. He stands for the reforms the people demand and the country most needs, and his record is spotless in all his public career. If he should be given the nomination, he would win. Then Hon. Oscar W. Underwood is the strongest leader that a Democratic congress ever had—a man of tremendous powers, aggressive, progressive on true Democratic principles and policies. His leadership against class legislation and favoritism, in giving equal opportunity to all, has no superior in the annals of American history. His determination to accomplish the reforms in the tariff that will give relief to the great mass of the people and knock from trusts their strongest bulwark, is known to all who read. No man can doubt his executive powers, no one can discredit his Democracy. True, he has not left the old path of Jeffersonian principles to beat the brush of sentimentalism and popular praise, but steadfast and true, courageous and undaunted he has made, and, is now making, a fight for a government for the people and buy the people. Why should Kentucky Democrats forget these two brilliant sons who have demonstrated their powers, their inestimable worth to just government, and cast their preferential votes for men whose political training is limited to the narrow confines of their own states? What's The Matter With Your Baby?

The young mother—and many an old one, too—is often puzzled to know the cause of her child's ill nature. The loudness of its crying does not necessarily indicate the seriousness of its trouble. It may have nothing more the matter with it than a headache or a feeling of general dullness. It cannot, of course, describe its feelings, but as a preliminary measure you are safe in trying a mild laxative.

Nine times out of ten, you will find it is all the child needs, for its restlessness and peevishness are perhaps due to obstruction of the bowels, and once that has been remedied the headache, the sluggishness and the many other evidences of constipation and indigestion will quickly disappear.

Don't give the little one salts, cathartic pills or nasty waters, for these will act as purgatives, and they are too strong for a child. In the families of Mrs. M. S. Adams, Auburn, Ky., and Mrs. L. M. Boyce, Tip Top, Ky., the only laxative given is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It has been found to answer most perfectly all the purposes of a laxative, and its very mildness and freedom from griping recommend it especially for the use of children, women, and old folks generally—people who need a gentle bowel stimulant. Thousands of American families have been enthusiastic about it for more than a quarter of a century.

Anyone wishing to make a trial of this remedy before buying it in the regular way of a druggist at fifty cents or one dollar a large bottle (family size) can have a sample bottle sent to the home free of charge by simply addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 405 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. Your name and address on a postal card will do.

Didn't Hear Anything "Bust."

The Harrodsburg Herald tells the following story and lays the scene in Danville. A tall man from the timber regions, suspected of hailing from another county, stepped into a Danville store the other day to do some trading. Among the desired purchases was a shirt waist for his wife. Entering the store he was directed to the shirt-waist department and made his wants known to the lady who was in charge. "What bust?" asked the saleslady. The man looked at her inquiringly a moment and then said: "I dunno, I didn't hear nothing!"

Good Sense.

The Democratic party in twenty-five years has never had so flattering prospects of electing a President. The Republican party is badly divided. The administration of President Taft has been a failure. The platform pledges upon which he was elected have been broken and the tariff instead of being reduced has been increased until the cost of living upon the masses has become a serious problem. The only things that the Democratic party has to do to win is to enunciate a progressive platform of principles and to nominate a candidate who distinctively stands for these principles. The party must nominate the right man to win and he does not live South of Mason and Dixon's line. Any good Northern or Western Democrat can carry every State in the South and no Southern man carry a single doubtful Northern or Western State. There are enough voters in every close state in the North who will not vote for a Southern man for President to lose the Presidential election. What is the sense of knocking our fat in the fire when all we have to do to sweep the country for Democracy is to nominate Woodrow Wilson or some other available progressive Democrat of the North.

Much as we would like to see a Southern man President we would much prefer the election of an Eastern or Western Democrat to the defeat of the best Democrat in the South. Why should Democracy imperil and in fact destroy the brilliant prospects of Democratic victory for a foolish sectional sentiment?—E-town News.

Salt For Animals.

Says the Minnesota University "Farm Press News;" All farm animals have an instinctive craving for salt. If it is so placed as to be always within their reach, they will consume just as much as they need, and no more. It is only when it has been kept from them for a long period that there is danger of their eating too much. It is therefore good practice to keep it in a box or boxes where they can have access to it whenever they desire.

When they are salted, as is the practice with many farmers, only once a week, while some may get enough, others may suffer from deficient supply. Salt promotes an active circulation of the blood, which never becomes thick and sluggish so long as the supply is plentiful; it assists digestion, and is often a preventive of disease. It is so cheap that no stock raiser can afford to deny to his animals all they want of it.

An Irish Farmer.

In the early part of March, 1855, a native of Ireland arrived in New York with $9 in his pocket. He struck off into the country, asking at every farm for a steady job and paying for a meal and a night's lodging with a few hours work. He finally found a place at $15 a month, board with the farmer's family and a room in the garret. Out of his pay, in the course of time, he bought 100 acres of land at $1 an acre. It was practically new land. He built a house with his own hands, a barr with timber on the land, and, with the help of his neighbors, dug the ditches and built the fences. He raised nine useful sons and daughters and led a happy life. To-day any man can get twice the wages and buy the farm, with all its improvements, at half the price; only one fourth the period of saving and waiting is required of the man who makes the effort to-day. What comparison is there between that Irish farmer's corn fields, the cattle on his hills, his peaceful Sunday afternoons and the horried life of the underfed city workman? No laws helped the immigrant except harsh ones which caused an economic situation that pushed him from his home and put him upon his own initiative and self-help.—Cincinnati Enquirer

Not Her Quarrel.

The fact that corporal punishment is discouraged in the public schools of Chicago is what led Bobby's teacher to address this note to the boy's mother:

"Dear Madam—I regret very much to tell you that your son, Robert, idles away his time, is disobedient, quarrelsome and disturbs the pupils who are trying to study their lessons. He needs a good whipping and I strongly recommend that you give him one. Yours truly, Miss Blank."

To this Bobby's mother responded as follows:

"My Dear Miss Blank—Lick him yourself. I ain't mad at him. Yours truly, Mrs. Dash." --Youth's Companion.

Old Riverman Dead.

Samuel Bryant, aged 90 years, 4 months and 21 days, died at his home, about three miles north of this city, Friday morning, March 8, at 1:30 o'clock.

The deceased was born on Green river, in Adair county, and was married in 1844, his wife having died some three years since at the age of 87. Many citizens of Taylor and Adair counties knew "Uncle Sam," as he was familiarly named, and knew him as genial, humorous intelligent gentleman, fond of sport and as a fisherman of renown. His last fishing trip was in the summer of 1911, while nearing his ninetieth anniversary and with his usual results—a big string of fish. Possessed of remarkable strength of body and power of endurance, coupled with exceeding good health, he was enabled to tramp 15 or 20 miles a day, even after his eighty-ninth year.

The summons came suddenly, cerebral hemorrhage, which he survived nine days only.

In his early years, Uncle Sam "took to the river" and made many trips on flatboats, loaded with tobacco, from the Green river section of Kentucky for the New Orleans market, returning by steamboat, on which he stoked to the mouth of Salt river, thence by foot to his home, seventy-five miles distance. The seventy-five miles he walked in one day. On the flatboat, the hands were well supplied with the necessities of life, as well as the luxuries of the times, especially plenty of those two famous products of Kentucky, corn whisky and game cocks—one barrel of the former and several coops of the fighters. The grand old time came on when the game boat tied up for the night. Staple corn juice in abundance, cock fighting and old sledge galore. The comic side of river life cannot be appreciated until related by such a man as Uncle Sam, embellished with native witticisms and delivered with a fine sense of the humorous. We, who know Sam Bryant best shall ever cherish pleasant memories of that jolly, good old man.

Mr. Bryant is survived by his sons, J. W. Bryant, of Taylor county, John Bryant, of Louisville; and daughters, Mrs. Hannah Lee and Mrs. Holmes of Taylor county.—News Journal.

The worst tragedies are not enacted on stages, but in homes. The divorce courts indicate that Poverty tragedies in the little street back of us where some actors suffer nobly rather than beg. Tragedies in the big houses for women, chambers of horrors for children. Breaking hearts withering hopes, maddening brains, and crowd goes screaming by. No, all the tragedy is not back in the little street. But "when poverty comes in the door" doesn't love fly out the window?" There are so many places of cheap amusement, and we may say so many cheap companions, so many dangers in the little town the same as the cities, that we must avoid by making the evenings at home so pleasant that our young people will be content to spend their evenings at home, and find their recreation in the entertainment arranged for their diversion.

It is always best to wait for the evidence before passing judgment. When you hear reports detrimental to young ladies or gentlemen, don't be hasty in forming conclusions. It is better to be charitable when any one is in trouble. Today it is some one else's boy or girl; tomorrow it may be yours.

Hanna's Green Seal "THE MADE-TO-WEAR PAINT"

Has stood the test of time and has been improved in quality with the passing years.

Many brands of paint are offered for sale and quite often careful scrutiny is not given the subject with reference to the quality of the paint to be used.

EXPERIENCE IS A GOOD TEACHER. TEST THE QUALITY.

It is a good idea to learn the composition of the paint you intend to use. There is a difference.

The printed formula appears on every package of Hanna's Green Seal Paint.

This is an evidence of good faith and attests the confidence the makers have in their product.
